

Name

PROFESSIONAL SUMMAR

A recognized nurse with 14 years of work experience in long term care while serving in different capacity.

WORK EXPERIENCE

06/2011 to 03/2016: Nurse Practice Educator

Genesis Healthcare – Tuscumbia, AL 35674

- Supervise different students during their training session
- Supervise and control clinical officers and other support staffs when providing patient care services
- Increase employee retention rate of the organization
- Carry out laboratory tests and transmit results to different departments
- Link patients and different health care officers to ensure there is proper treatment plan of patients
- Help patients and families on how to get good discharge care
- Increase adherence of HIPAA
- Facilitate QIA's to ensure there is annual performance improvement
- Design and create plans for patient care
- Offer quality control procedures to newly recruited workers
- Carry out a follow up on contagion control processes

10/2009 to 06/2011: Case Manager

Alacare Home Health – Decatur, AL

- Interpret the results of different lab tests conducted by other laboratory assistants
- Arrange and manage different support groups in topics related to emotional health to enhance long term condition of patients
- Supervise and direct many support staffs in taking care of patients with different needs while increasing their motivation.

- Managed Pharmacological and involved in treatment of different diseases
- Offered counseling to various clinical officers on how to manage certain diseases.
- Carried out lab test and interpreted results
- Link patients and different health care officers to ensure there is proper treatment plan of patients
- Gave advice to patients and families on how to get comprehensive discharge care
- Involved in the creation of care plans which included nursing diagnosis.
- Collect data from patients during the interview
- Documented patient information obtained from interviews.
- Respond to patients needs for 24 hours

03/2007 to 10/2009: Nursing Supervisor

Genesis Healthcare – Tuscumbia, AL

- Respond to patients needs for 24 hours
- Supervised clinical omission for more than 44 bed unit.
- Control intake of fluids and its full capacity
- Helped different patients with different daily needs
- Ensured that all the support staffs follow infectious control processes
- Test urine and send result to lab
- Offer basic operations to elderly people
- Get specimen such as blood sample and make them ready for laboratory test
- Admit patients to hospital

03/2016; Charge nurse

Genesis Healthcare – Tuscumbia, Al

- Assessed need for, ordered, obtained and interpreted appropriate lab tests.
- Developed patient care plans, including assessments, evaluations and nursing diagnoses.
- Carried out lab test and interpreted results

- Link patients and different health care officers to ensure there is proper treatment plan of patients
- Gave advice to patients and families on how to get comprehensive discharge care
- Involved in the creation of care plans which included nursing diagnosis.
- Collect data from patients during the interview
- Documented patient information obtained from interviews

EDUCATION

Associate of Science: Nursing, 2003

Calhoun Community College - Decatur, Al

Bachelor of Science: Nursing, 2014

University North Alabama - Florence, Al

Master of Science: Nurse Practitioner, 2016

Kaplan University - Iowa

